

Inclusion Aid: Hiring now for After School Program!

SAY, San Diego is currently looking for an Inclusion Aid to join our team. This is a part-time position that reports directly to the Site Supervisor of the after school program on a public school site. Special education background and experience with the process of including children with special needs in a before and after school program.

Part Time Afternoons 15- 17.5 hrs a week

Must be able to work the following schedule:MTWF 3:00- 6:00 pm and Tuesday 12:30- 6:00 pm

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Encourages children's participation in after school activities
- Supervision of 1-6 kindergarten through eighth grade children
- Tutor individuals and small groups in academic subjects
- Reinforces behavior modification techniques determined by school staff and Site Supervisor
- Ensure appropriate environment and safety of children
- Develop lesson plans in accordance with educational and/or guidance program

QUALIFICATIONS

- Minimum 6 months experience in the supervision/management of children
- Special education, child or youth development background
- Experience providing inclusive programs to children
- A minimum of 48 college units of which 12 units are in recreation, education, recreation or related field. OR able to pass the CAPE test.
- Personality and character traits suited to the care of children with special needs
- Knowledge of and ability to recognize limitations of children

HOW TO APPLY:

Please send resumes via fax 858-569-2491 or e-mail careers@saysandiego.org

SAY San Diego, Inc. (Social Advocates for Youth) is a dynamic, locally based non-profit agency celebrating 40 years of dedication to the positive development of young people, their families and communities.

Visit us at www.saysandiego.org

SAY San Diego is an EOE. SAY San Diego, a great place to work!!!

