

SO MUCH TO SAY!

March Newsletter

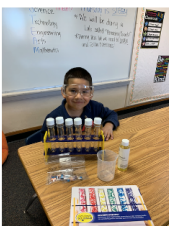

High childcare costs are a major financial burden for many families. Given the need and high demand, SAY San Diego is dedicated to making high-quality childcare accessible to all.

Leading the Way with STEAM Learning

Camp STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art, Math, and/or Music) provides a unique and exceptional learning experience for children. By integrating STEAM activities, the programming fosters innovation, creative problem-solving, collaboration, and critical thinking skills. As a valued partner, your support helps us continue to provide a safe and exciting environment where children can explore their interests, develop skills, and have fun!

Join us in inspiring the next generation of STEAM leaders by sharing our news with your network!

Registration for NEW families opens in April 2023.

Employer Supported Childcare Panel

Employers play a critical role in nurturing the needs of working parents. By supporting staff with childcare planning, employers can be a part of the solution to San Diego's childcare crisis while improving morale, presenteeism, and retention.

SAY San Diego's Martín Huici will be joining a panel with Kim McDougal from YMCA San Diego and Bret Peace from March and Ash to have an open discussion on how employers support their employee's childcare needs.
