PricewaterhouseCoopers Hosts Golf for San Diego Charity

SAY San Diego named Golf Tournament Beneficiary

ESCONDIDO, CA (June 28, 2017) – On Friday, August 18, 2017, the San Diego office of PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP ("PwC") will host its 2nd annual charity golf tournament at The Vineyard at Escondido, CA. The 4-man scramble tournament will begin at 8:30am with a shotgun start. The registration fee includes a breakfast burrito and coffee, range balls, golf, shared cart, course contests, two drink coupons, and a BBQ lunch buffet. There will also be a 50/50 raffle, a silent auction, and a general raffle to win some great prizes donated by San Diego businesses and PwC.

For two consecutive years, PwC has chosen the social services agency SAY San Diego as their beneficiary. President & CEO of SAY San Diego, Nancy Gannon Hornberger says she is overwhelmed with gratitude, "PwC has stepped up to support SAY San Diego's mission during a year of opportunity and growth – 100% of the proceeds will help meet critical needs of San Diego County children, youth, and families." In 2016, PwC raised $5,000 for SAY San Diego and hopes to bring in more than $7,500 in 2017.

Ways to get involved:

- Play in the tournament—Single Golfer: $150, Foursome of Golfers: $600
- Become a Sponsor—Sign recognition on the course. Sponsorships start at $200.
- Make a donation (gift card, gift basket, event tickets, golf equipment, etc.) to be used in the silent auction/ drawing.

To sign up or for more information, contact tournament coordinator Scott Dudzik at scott.n.dudzik@pwc.com or at 858-336-2721.
